

JUVENILE JUSTICE AND DELINQUENCY PREVENTION COMMISSION

MINUTES

May 23, 2017, 4:30- 6:15 pm

Central Marin Police Department, 250 Doherty Dr., Larkspur

I. Call to Order and introductions

A. Commissioners in attendance: Noah, Beverly, Marilyn and Dana. Guests: Melissa Valencia, Kathy J. Williams, Anna Pletcher, Eric Olson, Nicole Lescano, Jennifer Puckett

Review and approval of April, 2017 Minutes. Noah, Beverly MSC

II. JJDPC involvement, opportunities and activities

A. Commission Police Dept. Inspections

i. Sheriff Department

A. Don was absent and unable to report on the inspection.

ii. San Rafael inspection still needs to be scheduled

B. Youth Officers Roundtable

i. Evaluation and feedback

A. YOR #3 was very well received. The speakers and the panel received high evaluations. Improvables included: increasing attendance and having a longer workshop

ii. Next steps

A. A sub committee will begin planning YOR #4. Suggested topics: "Enhancing Police Responses to Children Exposed to Violence (using the toolkit)," understanding how different departments manage youth offenses and referrals, creating understanding about the criteria for diversion/referrals, etc.

B. Increase police department outreach to expand YOR list

C. Potential collaboration with the Human Rights Commission

i. The JJDPC and the Human Rights Commission discussed the need to ensure that all youth have access to opportunities and options for diversion. Is there a disparity? The JJDPC will collect data in order to continue the conversation.

III. Updates, reports, follow-ups

A. Juvenile Hall

i. Capital improvements begin on 6.5. According to JH, MCOE continues to work on the cyber-security of the school tablets

B. Youth Court

- i. Youth Court now takes place in the Courtrooms. Novato's Youth Court is working collaboratively with their Novato partners.

C. Recruiting new Commissioners

i. New Commissioner status

A. Melissa has completed her application and fingerprints

B. Nicole is completing her application and fingerprints

D. Legislation update (See attached)

E. Planning the JJDPC retreat, strategic planning update

- i. It is suggested that new Commissioners are recruited at this time, to include everyone at the JJDPC retreat

IV. Next steps

A. Upcoming dates

- i. Commission meetings: June 27, July 25, August 22, September 26, October 24, November 28

B. June's agenda items

C. Announcements and New Business

- i. It is/was National Police Officers Week. The Commission agreed to deliver cards and sweets to each police department to honor and appreciate their service