Center for Domestic Peace, 734 A Street, San Rafael, CA

- I. Call to Order and introductions
Commissioners present: Dana Pepp, Melissa Valencia, Beverly Farr
Guests: Nicole Lescano, Jacklyn Hutton, Robyn Roberts, Eric Olson, Kipp Delbyck, Kathleen Morrison

No quorum to approve minutes.

- II. JJDPC - involvement, opportunities and activities
 - A. Youth Officers Roundtable
 - i. The YOR sub-committee presented a draft of program content, noting possible speakers and activities for the session. Asked for review comments and thoughts about a title. Date is May 22, 10-12:00 pm. Committee will meet again to advance the idea.

 - B. "Know Your Rights" Workshop
 - i. Nicole and Melissa presented current information. They are working with Anna Pletcher and confirming possible dates—April 23 suggestion, during lunch period. Working with Canal Alliance—legal representative (Lucia). It will occur in Miss King's class during lunch period for approximately 35 minutes. Will publicize in announcements, bulletin, and posters. They are working on finalizing the details of the program.

- III. Updates, reports, follow-ups
 - A. Members or friends of the Commission will provide Kind bars to police departments (along with dog biscuits for those with canine departments). Dana will write the thank you letter and obtain the bars/biscuits.

 - B. Juvenile Hall and Juvenile Probation
 - i. Down to 7-8 youth at Juvenile Hall; started the garden program. Met with Canal Welcome Center to deliver a program weekly. Doing a lot of work on curriculum.

- IV.
 - A. Youth Court
 - i. Don not present for report.

B. New Commissioners' Status

- i. Jacklyn working on application, got fingerprints. Robyn did fingerprints today.

C. Police Officers' Week

- i. Agreed to deliver Kind Bars and dog treats to police departments.

Announcements

Anna's note: Troubled by article about 8th grade boys (one in MV, one in Larkspur) who wrote threatening emails and who was not sent to Juvenile Hall. Another boy, in 6th grade and Latino—in San Rafael—was sent to Juvenile Hall. Thinking about doing a YOR on equity.
