He spoke about their METAS programs, which is for English language learners, to support them and help them reach their goals.

III. JJDCP - involvement, opportunities and activities 5:30 – 5:50

A. Youth Officers Roundtable – Canceled

Alexa relayed to the group that the Youth Officers Roundtable on April 7 had been canceled due to the Covid-19 pandemic. Once it is safe again to gather, it will be rescheduled.

B. New Commissioners

Alexa asked for updates about new commissioners being accepted and how she will reach out to find out new information. The group spoke about having old commissioners join the group again because the group is now using Zoom calls to have meetings.

IV. Updates, reports, follow-ups

5:50 – 6:00

a. Juvenile Hall Updates

Alexa

Tori was not in attendance but Alexa gave the update Tori sent in. There are 9 youth in the hall, they are doing virtual school in the hall and starting to have virtual meetings with their families. The youth and staff are getting their temperatures taken and following all things necessary to keep everyone safe.

b. Youth Court Update

Don

Don reported that they had taken a short hiatus, and tomorrow, April 8, they will hold their first virtual case. They are the only youth court in the state still up and running. Don spoke about how the virtual case will work and how they are keeping it small and manageable.

V. Announcements/New Business

6:00 – 6:15

Alexa

Don brought up Mike Daly's retirement in June and how the group should reconize it. The group then discussed what they will give him and how.
